DEMAND

FUNDING

The onset of the pandemic saw an influx of emergency funding, doubling support to address increased demand. However, this funding has receded while community need has not, and PROGRAMS ARE STRUGGLING.

Many local programs are taking drastic steps amid funding challenges, including ADDING SENIORS TO WAITING LISTS AND CUTTING BACK ON SERVICES PROVIDED

“The greatest challenge I have ever faced in my life is getting old. Don’t get old, Hunny! The Meals on Wheels program makes it a lot easier to get through the day and have a reason to not give up.”

“Kim and I are blessed to be able to help organizations like Meals on Wheels. Hearing that they may have to cut services to homebound people in our community who rely on perhaps, not only this meal for the day, but for the companionship provided by those delivering the meals, is simply not acceptable. We hope that our willingness to assist will inspire others to assist as well.”
Roger (donor)

“I enjoy volunteering because it feels good to serve the community. As they say – doing the good deed. I’ve always felt the need to volunteer. I enjoy volunteering at Meals on Wheels, but it gets very sad at times, especially when you deliver so long, and you get to know these people and get used to seeing them and they pass away or come off the program. Regardless, I love the time spent with them and the friends they have become.”
